

Captain Steve Hall graduated from the Virginia Military Institute in 1986 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Biology. He received his commission through the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps program. Additionally, he earned a Master of Science in Biomedical Engineering degree from the University of Virginia and a Masters in Engineering Management from Old Dominion University.

After commissioning, CAPT Hall attended the Navy nuclear power training pipeline and Submarine Officer's Basic School. His history of assignments follows:

1987-1990 USS Benjamin Franklin (SSBN-640) - Reactor Controls Assistant, Main Propulsion Assistant, Assistant Weapons Officer

1991-1993 NROTC Unit Virginia Military Institute - Instructor

1994-1995 USS Sunfish (SSN-649) - Combat Systems Officer

1995-1997 USS Enterprise Strike Group Staff - Submarine Liaison Officer, Tomahawk Strike

1997-1999 On-Site Inspection Agency - Arms Control Inspector

1999-2002 Navy and Marine Corps Reserve Center Richmond, VA - CO

2002-2004 Commander Submarine Force Pacific Fleet - Operations

Department/Operational Support Officer. Completed Individual Augmentee assignment as deputy Submarine Operations Officer at Commander U.S. Fifth Fleet in Bahrain for Operation Iraqi Freedom.

2004-2006 Navy and Marine Corps Reserve Center Wilmington, DE - CO

2006 SECNAV Council of Review Boards - Board Member for Navy Discharge Review Board and Medical Board

2007-2010 Chief of Naval Operations, Submarine Warfare Division - Deputy for Manpower and Training. Completed Individual Augmentee assignment as a Brigade Electronic Warfare Officer in Iraq.

CAPT Hall assumed his duties as Operational Support Officer at Commander Submarine Force Atlantic Fleet in November 2010. In this capacity, he coordinates the employment of 1,300 Reserve Sailors who support the Submarine Force in the areas of Undersea Warfare Operations, Expeditionary Maintenance, Force Protection, and Submarine Rescue.