

Kristan Hoffman Personal Profile

Educational Qualifications:

- Master's Degree in Public Administration, Rutgers University, 1999
Special emphasis on collective bargaining and low-income housing development
- Bachelor of Arts in Economics, International Studies, Women's Studies, University of Richmond– Phi Beta Kappa, 1995

Work/Experience Qualifications:

- Insurance Specialist, VA Insurance Center, Philadelphia, May 1999 – present
- Fundraiser, Asst. Director of Major Gifts, Allegheny University of the Health Sciences, January 1996- January 1998
- Range of local and state government experience – spent two years as an intern in the Virginia Assembly both as a lobbying intern for an interest group and a staff person for the Women's Caucus. Served in local government office, learning the range of activities involved in supporting citizenry (taxes, water/sewer, public works, etc.)
- Range of student leadership activities including leading consensus-based co-curricular women's leadership group, events and activities planner for student activity group, Honor Council member.

VA Areas of Expertise

- Range of Insurance benefits, especially SGLI, VGLI, Family SGLI and TSGLI

Volunteer Activities:

- Girl Scout Leader
- PTA Chair – Large Events
- English As A Second Language Tutor –Tutored both Asian and Hispanic students in English.
- Participated in a range of volunteer activities supporting development of young women. This includes, sex education counseling to young women at risk, Girl Scout mentoring, and in college, counseling of young women in juvenile detention centers. Extremely interested in activities that support the development of strong and confident young women.

Personal:

- Married with three children, ages 11 and 8
- Avid hiker, camper, swimmer, and reader