

Mr. Ray Holdeman is currently serving as the Acting Division Chief for Personnel, under the Army National Guard G-1. He is responsible for ensuring that ARNG States/Territories are provided with needed resources to execute core HR activities, thereby improving Soldier readiness, facilitating lifecycle management, and supporting transformation as well as providing Guard leaders with enhanced HR Situational Awareness. He serves as the principal advisor to the Army National Guard Senior Leadership in all areas pertaining to personnel services, policy and automated systems support.

Mr. Holdeman is a graduate of both the U.S. Army Warrant Officer Aviation and AG courses, and has served more than 30 years combined in all three Army Components as an Enlisted, Aviation Warrant Officer and finally as an AG Warrant Officer, retiring from the Army Reserve, Active Guard and Reserve program in August, 2005. He went back to work for the Army National Guard in September of 2005 and has served there in various levels of leadership as a Military Human Resource Management Supervisor for the past 6 years.
