Recovering Warrior Task Force (RWTF) has released its 2013-2014 Annual Report

Alexandria, VA. – The RWTF is pleased to announce the release of their 2013-2014 Annual Report, which marks the RWTF's fourth and final report since its establishment in 2010. Each report provides the Department of Defense (DoD) with advice and recommendations on the care, management, and transition of recovering Service members and their families.

To view the 2013-2014 Annual Report or for more information regarding the Recovering Warrior Task Force, please visit our website at <http://rwtf.defense.gov>.

Due to the conclusion of our congressionally chartered term on November 19, 2014, the RWTF website will be locked with the release of this report. All information on this site will be statically accessible for a period of one year, at which time the website will be formally deactivated in October 2015.
