

Lisa Morgan
Coordinator of the Family Caregiver Program
Yellow Ribbon Fund

Lisa grew up in upstate New York, and has a B.S. in Childhood Education and an M.S. in Literacy Education. She is the fiancée of Captain Jake Murphy, USA, who was injured July 23, 2011 in Afghanistan, while deployed with the 10th Mountain Division out of Fort Drum, NY.

She relocated to Bethesda, Md., upon Jake's injuries and has since been assisting him with therapy for his traumatic brain injury and bilateral amputations of his legs. She began working for the Yellow Ribbon Fund in January 2013 as Coordinator of the Family Caregiver Program, working closely with families and caregivers of recovering Warriors.

Lisa and Jake are excitedly planning a May 2013 wedding at the Cadet Chapel at West Point
